Ps Joe Champion

Scripture: Hebrews 12:25–29, Revelation 3:10, John 17:19, Hebrews 9:14 Matthew 3:15, Hebrews 13:1-2

Ice-breaker: Think of a time when something you relied on unexpectedly broke down or fell apart. It does not have to be dramatic. Maybe it was a car, a plan, a job, or a relationship. How did you initially respond?

Key Takeaways

Everything that is man-made or built apart from God can and will be shaken. What remains after the shaking reveals what is truly unshakable.

God does not cause every disruption, but he uses disruption to expose what we are truly attached to and where we are placing our hope.

The book of Hebrews was written to people who were considering walking away from Christ under pressure. The same temptation exists today.

When the world shakes, believers have two primary responses available to them: worship and service.

Questions

1. Read Hebrews 12:25-27 together. What do you think it means practically for something to be "unshakable" in your own life?

2. Pastor Joe described worship as "worthship," meaning whatever you assign worth to in your daily life. Using that definition, what does your average week reveal about what you actually worship?

3. Hebrews 13:1-2 calls believers to love one another and show hospitality to strangers. The Pastor Joe pointed out that these are two distinct callings: one directed inward toward the church community and one directed outward toward those not yet in it. Which of these two tends to come more naturally to you? Which is more of a stretch?
